At some point, most of us will face the challenge of determining the best course of action for our aging parent(s).

Should we move them in with us?

How expensive is at-home or live-in care for them?

How will I know when an Assisted Living or even Nursing Home is the safest option for my parent?

These decisions can be stressful for the whole family. Lezli Ragland from Compass ElderCare Solutions, will bring some much needed light and relief to this discussion and do it all with understanding, love and compassion.
